
ORDERS MINES DISTRICT NO. 18 REOPEN AT ONCE

Terms Of Settlement Wages Dispute Those Arranged By R. F. Green.

Calgary, June 27.—The mines in district 18 and the Red Deer valley will re-open at once. An order to the operators to this effect was issued today by Commissioner W. H. Armstrong, who was appointed by the Dominion to investigate the situation and to take such action as might be deemed necessary in the public interest.

Mr. Armstrong has wide powers under the order-in-council under which he is acting and the operators have no recourse but to obey the mandate. The mines probably will be in operation by next Tuesday, July 3. The word has to be disseminated to the men who are widely scattered as a consequence of the prolonged strike and it will be impossible to get them together before that date.

The terms under which the mines will operate will be those arranged by R. F. Green after his recent inquiry here. Mr. Green reported in favor of the operators eliminating the penalty clause of them paying an increase over the 7-1-2 per cent. more than that of the tentative agreement and of appointing a committee to investigate living cost and conditions every four months at the request of either party.

These terms provide for an increase over the old agreement of about 22 1/2 per cent. as the scale in the tentative agreement was about 15 per cent. above that of the old agreement.

The penalty clause was to penalize the men if they violated the agreement.

The commission is supposed to adjust the wages on the basis of living cost and may accordingly raise or lower the rate of pay.

The operators are quite philosophic as they recognize the force of the order-in-council.

"It means that we have to open the mines," said one. "That is final, we would be foolish and unpatriotic to disobey this order for the government has the power to enforce it and certainly would enforce it if we disobeyed."

FINANCE'S WAR BUDGET
PARIS, June 27.—France will require for the third quarter's expenses $2,244,000,000 francs, or about 218,000,000 more than for the second quarter of 1917, making a total appropriation for thirty-eight months of 98,882,000,000 francs.

MEXICO CITY, June 27.—Graham Richards, British consul general, and former private secretary to Lord Northcliffe, has been ordered to England by the British foreign office to take immediate charge of another post.

FARMERS MUST SAVE SOLDIERS FROM STARVING

Serious Food Shortage Demands Greatest Possible Food Production.

The brave sons of Canada will have died in vain if hunger compels the Motherland's surrender. Such an eventuality seems impossible to credit, but unless the farmers of this continent are able to keep the soldiers and civilians of Europe supplied with food, it will be an actual fact. There is a real world-wide food shortage. European production through the withdrawal of millions of men from the farms has been cut in half. Agriculture has had such a crop shortage that an embargo has been placed on shipments. The submarine menace and shipping shortages make it almost impossible to secure grain from India and Australia.

Ogden Armour, executive head of Armour & Co., one of the world's largest dealers in food products, in a recent interview stated that unless the United States wished to walk into a catastrophe, the best brains of the country under government supervision must immediately devise means of increasing and conserving food supplies. He urged the cultivation of every available acre, and said the farmers of this continent must wake up.

This is the situation, and the farmers of Canada and Great Britain are being depended upon in this crisis. The 1917 crop is now in, and the present is the time to plan the 1918 campaign. New land must be broken now to yield well next year, and summer fallows must be cultivated this summer to keep them clean and conserve the moisture for the crops of 1918 so urgently required.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

Socialists of Russia Vote Solidly Against Separate Peace Move

Declare Such an Arrangement Would Strengthen One of the Belligerents and Give it Possibility of Defeating One of the Others—Rapid Ending of War Constitutes Most Important Problem For Revolutionary Democracy.

Petrograd, June 27.—A resolution categorically rejecting any move for a separate peace between Germany and Russia has been adopted by an overwhelming majority by the congress of Workers' and Soldiers' deputies of all Russia. The resolution at the same time declares that restoration of peace at the earliest possible day is the most important need of the Russian revolutionary democracy. The text of the resolution which was proposed by revolutionary socialists and the Minimalist social democrats, follows:

"The present war arose in consequence of aspirations of imperialism prevailing among the ruling classes of all countries and tending towards the usurpation of markets and submission to their economic and political influence of small and decadent nations. The war is leading to complete exhaustion of people of all countries and is placing the Russian revolution on the edge of a precipice. While making millions of victims and absorbing billions of the wealth of the country it threatens to increase still more the poverty in which Russia was left by the old regime, leading to famine and turning the country from productive labor for the consolidating of its newly-won liberty."

VETERANS INVITED TO GARDEN PARTY

Car Owners Are Asked To Be Ready To Give Soldiers Transportation.

It is the wish of the committee in charge that members of the Automobile Club shall notify the secretary as to when and where they will be at the service of the returned soldiers. This evening the boys from the front are to be the guests of the garden party of Metropolitan Methodist church, on 83rd avenue. Car owners are requested to call at the Veterans' clubrooms at the Empire block, corner of Jasper and 101st, and also at both the convalescent home and the military hospital, at about 7 p.m. to take the men to the party.

The series of concerts to be held in the grove of Victoria Park during July and August for the benefit of the veterans will be under the direction of G. Turner and are expected to be pretty affairs.

POPULACE ACCLAIM VENIZOS AFTER TAKING OFFICE

ATHENS, June 27.—The new Greek ministry headed by Eleutherios Venizelos took the oath at the palace today and was acclaimed by an enthusiastic crowd on returning to the government building when M. Venizelos warmly thanking the people for their delivered a speech from a balcony, plaudits. Strong military precautions had been taken to prevent possible disorders but they proved unnecessary as the malcontents showing themselves in a small minority.

PLENTY OF COAL AND CHEAP
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Assurances that the government and the general public will be furnished coal at a reasonable price were given by representatives of both hard and soft coal interests, who again today conferred with the national defense council's coal committee.

MINES EXPECTED TO RE-OPEN TUESDAY

Preparations Being Completed For A Referendum In Various Camps.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
CALGARY, Alta., June 27.—There is absolutely no grounds on which the miners cannot, and every possibility that they will, accept without further question, Commissioner Armstrong's announcement that they resume work at the mines on the basis of the proposals made by R. F. Green, M.P., and accepted by the policy committee. The members of this committee left town tonight for the various camps to prepare for the referendum which will be taken on Saturday. Everything satisfactory, the mines are expected to re-open Tuesday next.

The miners' cause cannot suffer as the arrangements stand and there is no reason why they should not accept them, is the opinion of President Graham, of District 18. With the government commission in operation and an investigation of cost of living and increases based on the minimum of 2-1-2 per cent., wages cannot go any lower than how fixed.

ESCAPE DEATH THO' AIRSHIP BURNS

Two Of Crew Of A Zeppelin Destroyed In East Anglia.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, June 27.—When the British recently brought down a Zeppelin on the east Anglian coast they captured two members of the crew, who in a miraculous manner, escaped death as the airship plunged to earth. This fact was made known to the newspapers today by the admiralty. One of the prisoners is an officer and the other a private. The private sustained broken legs in the fall of the airship, but he is recovering. His companion escaped virtually unscathed. The Zeppelin fell from a height of 13,000 feet and was in flames when it reached the ground. How the two Germans escaped death cannot be accounted for.

The above undoubtedly refers to the air raid on the east and south-west coast of England early Sunday morning, June 17, when one Zeppelin was brought down in flames.

WINNIPEG DOGS FOR SHOWS.

WINNIPEG, June 27.—A carload of dogs, comprising 52 canines, picked from the kennels of Winnipeg, leaves tomorrow to compete at the Calgary and Edmonton dog shows. The dogs are in the charge of George Kynock.

WAR VETERANS WILL BE SPECIAL GUESTS AT EMPIRE THEATRE

Twenty returned soldiers from the South Side convalescent hospital will attend the Empire theatre on Friday night as the special invited guests of Manager E. H. Benson, of the Empire, and Manager W. J. Stewart, of "The Crisis." Messrs. Benson and Stewart were hosts to the veterans last week and so greatly was the troop appreciated that the boys were invited for the showing of "The Crisis," which is under, the same management as "The Whip."

On Saturday morning there will be a special children's matinee at 10.30, when all the school children in the city will have an opportunity of seeing "The Crisis." The historical value of this story is such that it is almost certain to appeal to school children who in the lower grades learn of the effect of the American Civil War upon the future of a great nation.

DISTINGUISHED PROTEAN ACTOR COMING
An announcement of importance to Edmonton theatre goers is made by the management of the Pantheatre to the effect that Owen McDivney, the celebrated English actor who has been seen in vaudeville and at a Pantheatre bill soon. Mr. McDivney is presenting one of the most remarkable characters ever seen in vaudeville and Mr. Pantheatre considers himself and his patrons exceedingly fortunate in being able to present a player of such high qualities for a limited vaudeville tour.

Mr. McDivney is offering a condensed version of Charles Dickens' famous novel, "Oliver Twist," and in the presentation he is portraying all the many characters himself, accomplishing this truly remarkable feat by surprisingly quick changes of costumes. These character changes in themselves would stamp Mr. McDivney as one of the world's greatest character delineators and would place his vaudeville easily in the headline class. But in addition to this, Mr. McDivney is said to have a vehicle of extraordinary interest to modern theatre goers as it tells a story of surpassing dramatic interest, has many thrilling climaxes and gives opportunities for character studies that are far above the usual run.

Photoplays

ability men tell of current attractions on the screen in Local Picture House

MONARCH—In speaking of her recent Famous Players-Paramount picture, "Her Better Self," which is the feature film at the Monarch, the star said: "Working in motion pictures is like taking a course in life. The variety, for every picture something different comes up and one is learning new things every day. It is fascinating. For instance, in 'Her Better Self' we took many of the scenes in one of the most famous neighborhood charity bazaar in the country and I learned much of the practical side of the work. We saw the hundreds of poor people that benefit each day from these charity bazaars—mothers sent away with their arms piled high with food and clothes for their little ones, children suffering from neglect or cruelty relieved and all sorts of misery alleviated. It has made me form a resolution to do more than ever towards helping this wonderful work along, and with this the energetic star hurried away at the call of her director."

Patrons of the Monarch this week have been pleasantly surprised by "A Reckless Romeo," the "Fatty Arbuckle" picture in which the hefty comedian takes a big step upward in film production and acting. One who expects to find only rough houses in a picture because Arbuckle is the principal comedian, will receive somewhat of a shock for the picture is a masterpiece of the photography a vast improvement from that usually found in a comedy film, and Arbuckle's wit, which is not to be compared with those who have supported him in the past. "A Reckless Romeo" is a two reel picture that has been seen at the Monarch in many weeks.

EMPIRE—This is the last day for the showing in silent film of the wonderful Vitaphone super photodrama, "The Girl Philippa," which has drawn so many thousands to the Empire during the last three days. The feature is a visualization of the famous novel of the same name by Robert W. Chambers, and is a tale of two hearts, told in terms of love, war, of beauty and adventure. Aglow with color and romance, alive with movement and action, set in an atmosphere charged with secret agents, society and blood-lust, the magic of the author of the novel has been brought to life in a most beautiful and pleasing manner. The strength of the author and the charm of that great actor, Owen McDivney, can be added to the power of the picture, which is backed by twenty years of knowledge and the result is a film that is unbeatable from every angle of entertainment. Dainty Miss Stewart, one of the most versatile stars on the screen today has won her way into the hearts of thousands of movie fans all over America, and is known to a good many extra thousands in Edmonton by her impersonation of Philippa during the past three days. Since her success in "The Wood Vixen" she has been called upon to play more and more difficult roles, more complex and more demanding of artistic interpretation. In the wonderful role of Philippa she gives her countless friends a characterization worthy of the greatest praise and one that has won the admiration and comments from all critics. On the screen Friday and Saturday is a new William Fox release, "The Beast."

GIANT HERO OF FILM

FEATURE A SOUTHERNER

Tom Santachi, like Stephen Brice, whom he impersonates in "The Crisis," now at the Empire theatre, emigrated in early life to St. Louis and grew up amid the scenes described in the novel by his fellow-townsmen, Winston Churchill, and depicted in the dramatic screen version.

Tom Santachi's real name is Paul W. Santachi. Early in his career at the Bellvue theatre, the director, who was looking for a name, and Santachi one day told him "Just call me Tom." He has been "Tom" ever since.

Santachi was born in Lucerne, Switzerland, into the guild of world-famous watch-makers. Like his relatives and companions, he became a watch-maker about the time he learned to talk, and in his childhood days he learned to regard watch-making as his destiny. However, he developed a strong love for music, and his life hours were spent in the study of an expert pianist, but an improviser of promise. About this time, the New World, with its roster of sporting events beckoned his parents, and he was brought to the United States and St. Louis.

Young Santachi continued making watches in St. Louis, but his musical accomplishments attracted attention, and gradually he drifted into the theatrical world. He began taking small parts in stock companies and touring attractions that demanded extra players, and his talent led him rapidly and inevitably away from the trade. Then came the motion picture, with its brilliant promises. Santachi joined the Bellvue force, where his presence was quick, until he became the leading man in the studies.

Santachi's giant in physique and strength, first started and fascinated the public in his hair-raising scenes with wild animals. Then came the role of the hero, which he played opposite Wm. Farnum in the sensational encounter of the two strong men. He played the part of the matinee idol, along with his handsome-like accomplishments, and it is as a heroic lover that he was delighted in "The Crisis."

SET UP COST DEPARTMENT TO GET FIGURES

British Food Controller Takes Steps Regarding Prices of Foodstuffs

London, June 27.—Baron Rhonda has decided that in order to limit any further rise in prices of the more important food stuffs and as far as possible to reduce the present level of prices it will be necessary to institute much stricter and more complete measures of control of the industries engaged in the production of foodstuffs.

"Many prices," says Baron Rhonda in the statement announcing the new department's formation, "require to be enforced by strict control from the producer to the retailer with the object of limiting profits at every stage from production to distribution to a fair remuneration for the services rendered."

The first step is to determine the exact cost of production and handling. For that purpose steps have been taken to set up a cost department of highly skilled accountants who will have full powers to obtain any particulars which may assist the controller in arriving at accurate figures as to cost."

BELIEF REVIVED GERMAN U-BOATS ARE THIS SIDE OF ATLANTIC

Officers of U.S. Navy Declare if This is so, U-boats Have Been Convoys by Mercantile Submarines.

Providence, R.I., June 27.—The President's statement today says: "The United States government is in possession of information which has revived the belief that German U-boats are again on this side of the Atlantic and that they have established a base somewhere off the south side of Cuba."

"It is declared by officers of the navy that if this is so, these U-boats have either been preceded or followed by one or more mercantile submarines, which have carried extra supplies of torpedoes and oil. Such a convoy is said to be absolutely necessary in order to make the trip across the Atlantic for German submarines worth while."

"The arming of all merchant ships has practically destroyed the attack value of the three inch and four inch guns which have been carried on the decks of these submarines in the past and the small fire of which has meant the saving of a great many torpedoes. With the greater risk from open fighting now that mercantile vessels are armed, the submarines are being compelled to depend more and more on torpedoes alone, and it is pointed out that unless these U-boats, which are said to have reached Atlantic waters of the United States, have some means of replenishing their stock of torpedoes, their presence here, except in great numbers, would be productive of very little military advantage. It is believed, therefore, that mercantile submarine convoys have been sent also."

American warships are conducting a ceaseless search along the suspected shores for any traces of bases of this character."

GREEK MONARCH TO COMPLY WITH ALLIES' DEMAND

Retiring Premier Zaimis Says King Alexander Gave This Assurance

Athens, June 27.—The resignation of Premier Zaimis was caused by a decision that he could not assume responsibility for convocation of parliament of May 31, 1918, which King Constantine dissolved. M. Jonnart, diplomatic representative of the Allies, demanded the assembling of this parliament in which M. Venizelos had a majority. In resigning M. Zaimis announced that King Alexander was willing to comply with all the demands of the Allies.

M. Venizelos will be premier, Nicholas Politis, foreign minister of the provisional government as up at Saloniki by M. Venizelos, probably will have the foreign portfolio.

Neither the archbishop of Athens nor members of the Holy Synod who took part in the anathematizing of M. Venizelos, will be present at the administration of the oath. They will resign. Cretan gendarmes will act as bodyguard for M. Venizelos. Proceedings have been instituted against the ringleaders in the recent demonstration.

SPANISH CABINET MAKES EXPLANATION

In Interest of Tranquility Decries Suspension of Constitutional Guarantees

Madrid, June 27.—The reason for the action of suspending the constitutional guarantees in Spain is outlined in the following official note, which has been issued by the cabinet:

"Following reports from various provinces, according to which campaigns of agitation have been conducted by well-known persons, who have excited violence and provoked disorder and outbreaks on the part of a certain section of the press, which has been publishing deplorable articles attacking the fundamentals of social order and tending to destroy military discipline and to present Spain as a country undermined by the passion of revolution and ripe to afford a spectacle of violence and crime, the government, after an examination of all the circumstances that menace public order in various ways, believes it indispensable to tranquility to decree the suspension of the guarantees."

DRASTIC DECISION ON PROHIBITION

Washington, June 27.—With drastic prohibition amendments to prohibit the manufacture of beer as well as distilled liquors and giving the President discretion to permit the manufacture of vinous beverages. The food bill was agreed to today by the Senate agricultural committee and favorably reported as a substitute for the bill now under consideration.

By a vote of eight to seven, the Senate committee rejected the sub-committee's prohibition plan and proceeded to consider various other substitute proposals.

After rejecting the sub-committee's prohibition plan the full committee adopted the house prohibition provisions with a modification as to manufacture of vinous beverages. The provisions would prohibit manufacture of all intoxicants including both distilled spirits and malt beverages and wines, but would allow the President discretion to permit further manufacture of wine only.

INDIGNANT IN BRITAIN OVER REVELATIONS

Mesopotamia Report Followed by Demand for Disciplinary Measures

London, June 27.—Even the dissatisfaction that was aroused by the report of the Dardanelles commission is exceeded by the storm of reproaches in the press over the revelations regarding the Mesopotamia expedition made public in the Blue Book issued last night. Several high reputations have been blasted by this report, but some of the newspapers, dissatisfied with the comforting assurances that the old regime has disappeared, demanded to be informed whether disciplinary measures are to follow.

The feature of the report is a description of the sufferings of the wounded after the battle of Ctesiphon. Surgeon Major Carter made a report declaring the wounded were without protection from the rain, some without blankets and some with broken limbs set with splints made from strips of whisky boxes. The commission's evidence shows that Surgeon Major Carter's superior officers threatened to put him under arrest and referred to him as a "fidler," while the report of General Sir John Nixon, then commander of the British forces in Mesopotamia, in response to a query from the Indian office, which had heard rumors as to bad conditions declared the medical arrangements were splendid. In reply to a telegram from Adjutant General Cowper, in January, 1916, saying the relief of Kut-el-Amara would have to be abandoned unless he received adequate shipping transport, the Indian commander in chief wired that "we would remove Adjutant General Cowper from command if he sent any more querulous or petulant demands for shipping."

The Evening Standard points out that J. Austin Chamberlain, secretary for India, and Baron Hardinge, former viceroy for India, remain in high office and that the others named as responsible have suffered except in reputation. It charges that there is something "terribly wrong with a system which consistently refused to punish the gross incompetence in high places, and attributes this to the "social position, inter-marriage and free masonry of officialdom."

NEW FAMILIES MAKE HOMES AT PEACE RIVER

In Past Two Weeks at Least Six New Homes Established There

(Special to the Bulletin.)
Peace River, June 25.—Each trail brings in with it individuals who are coming to settle in the district, eager, expectant, pioneers, who as they get their first glimpse of the magnificent valley of the Peace from the brow of one of the high banks, go into enthusiastic praises of the beauty of their new home. It is a right royal impression, and when he stood on the mountain top overlooking the present city of Montreal and named it Mount Royal, last week there came the wives and families of at least three new homes while the previous week there were a number also.

In the following lines are a number of the new comers:
Mrs. W. A. Rheinhart and little daughter have come to reside at the Crossing, Mr. Rheinhart being connected with the Wilson Hardware Co.
Mrs. R. N. Whillans, Miss Isabel Whillans and Miss Phyllis, a trio of girls, have come to establish themselves in the community. Mr. Whillans is the managing editor of the new paper, the "Peace River Standard," which published its first issue on June 22nd.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Price and little son of Edmonton are also new comers in the village and expect to reside permanently. They have taken the Anderson house. Mr. Price is business manager of the new paper.

U.S. CRUISER OLYMPIA AGROUND

Was Flagship of Admiral Dewey in Battle of Manila Bay

Washington, June 27.—The navy department officially confirms reports that the U.S. cruiser Olympia, which was the flagship of Admiral Dewey in the battle of Manila Bay, is aground near Block Island. The following announcement is authorized: "On Monday afternoon the U.S.S. Olympia struck south of Cerebus shoal buoy in Block Island Sound. Port engine and fire room flooded after ship had listed ten degrees. Ship was then in shoal water for observation, and is now resting easily in 4 1/2 fathoms on edge of shoals."

WILL INSURE ALL MEN WITH FORCES

Scheme is Inaugurated by the Strongest Companies in England

London, June 27.—Insurance for all men serving with the British forces on land or sea has been inaugurated by the strongest companies in England. It affects all ranks, offering a fixed rate with benefits varying according to the circumstances attending death. The minimum yearly premium is 8s and the maximum $100. If the insured soldier dies of natural causes in Europe, or the sailor at sea, the beneficiary receives $500. If he dies in action, or is drowned at sea, the beneficiary receives $25 immediately, with a share in nine-tenths of the entire surplus arising from the whole scheme, which will be divided at the end of the war.

JUDGE MUST PAY TAX

TORONTO, June 27.—Judge Morison, of the Ontario courts, was claimed exemption because of his post, but was his income tax, according to a decision just handed down by the appellate division at Osgoode Hall. The big point in the decision is that the income of civil servants are liable to taxation.

Sizes 5 1-2 to 8 Only in Dorothy Dodd Seconds on Sale Thursday at $4.75, Regularly $7.00 to $15.00

THIS is precisely the same proposition that brought hundreds to the Store this morning. Identically the same style and equally as good an assortment, for not a solitary pair in these sizes, 5 1/2 to 8, has been sold.

Our idea in dividing the sizes in this way was due to the fact that there was more than double the usual quantity in this purchase, making it a very difficult problem to provide space and tables in the department. Besides we also concluded in dividing the sizes would accordingly divide or half the crowd and thus enable us to give better service and make it more satisfactory for those picking out their sizes. We are now convinced that it would have been impossible for us to cope with the crowd at all this morning for sizes 1 to 5. None in sizes 1 to 5 on sale Thursday but we will clear the remainder of sizes 1 to 8 on Friday. See announcement following this one.

They are in button and lace styles, possessing all the latest, smartest features in toes, heels, tops, etc., in all leathers and combinations of different leathers and colors. Patent leather, viol kid, gun metal, bright kid calf and suede, in black, brown, pearl gray, russet, tan, champagne, ivory, white, etc. Have turn-over or Godyear welt soles, on smart comfortable lasts. A perfect ideal skirt to wear for every day use with middies. All sizes 6 to 16 years. Priced at $4.75. Special Thursday at $4.75.

Children's and Misses' Smart Middies, Reg. $1.25, Priced $1

FEW MOTHERS will miss this opportunity of getting the girls well stocked with middies for the summer holidays at saving of 25c each. They are made of white middie cloth with large sailor collar, all around belt and two cuffs, belt and pockets are trimmed with pink, and white, blue and white or green and white stripes. Sizes 6 to 10 years. Sizes 6 to 10 years. Regular $1.25. Special Thursday at $1.00.

Stylish New Cotton Suitings Priced Thursday at 35c

WOMEN WHO are planning to make up a summer wash suit should not delay any longer in securing the material. Buy the material now and make it up so you are ready for the real hot weather, when just such a suit is needed. By getting the material on Thursday at Johnstone Walkers you can save a considerable amount on what it would cost you at another time.

Priced per yard, at 35c. Special Thursday at 35c. (All goods put through our shrinking machine at 5c per yard)

Patriotism Demands That You Spend—But Spend Wisely!

It is not true patriotism to hoard your money. The country needs it in circulation to carry on the war.

Don't spend less money, but spend it more carefully. Avoid waste. Be productive. Make your own clothes at home. By the use of Butterick Patterns you will be more smartly gowned than ever, and at the same time be serving your country.

All the latest Paris styles are here for your selection. The illustrated instructions in each pattern show you just how easy it is to make your gown.

Call now at our Pattern Counter on the Second Floor.

Dashing New Serviceable Women's and Misses' Cotton Wash Suits Moderately Priced at $10.00

FOR summer wear, a cotton wash suit should be in every woman's wardrobe; it is so light in weight, cool and smart looking, and answers so many practical purposes. In this selection are several different styles, each distinguished by some little touch of smartness that makes these suits so very interesting.

They are fashioned of plain linen in the large spotted or wide stripe effect, also the khaki kool patterns. Shown in tan, brown, gray, gold or white. The coat features the large cape collar, deep patch pockets, deep cuffs and belt. The skirt is gathered and trimmed with belt and pockets. Priced at $10.00.

Women's Stylish Windsor Ties, Regularly 65c, Thursday at 49c

Every woman feels the need of one or more of these smart, stylish, little ties. They are made of crepe de chene, of good quality in white, flesh, pink, rose, cerise, a-z, sage, copen, Royal blue, navy, cardinal, green, brown, purple and black. Regularly 65c. Thursday Special at 49c.

THE DUTY AND RIGHT OF CRITICISM.

The libel suit, Sheppard versus The Bulletin, has been decided in the Supreme Court of Canada. It will be remembered that this suit arose out of the fight for a "clean city" that was put up by The Bulletin during the municipal elections of 1914. The civic conditions in Edmonton during that year were so bad that a judicial investigation was held. The findings of the judge disclosed an utterly disgraceful condition of affairs in the City of Edmonton. When the municipal elections for the year were in progress, The Bulletin took the view that the administrative majority in the City Council was responsible for the condition of affairs proven at the judicial investigation, and called for the defeat of those members of that majority who were standing for re-election. Of necessity, the names of the members of the Council constituting the administrative majority, and therefore, as The Bulletin contended, responsible for the conditions of the city, were specifically mentioned. Several of the aldermen standing for re-election gave notice of action for libel against The Bulletin. Alderman Rice Sheppard, who had been included as a member of the administrative majority, but who was not standing for re-election, also entered action for libel. In all, The Bulletin received notice of nine suits for libel arising out of the municipal contest, with aggregate claims for damages in the neighborhood of $75,000.

When the elections were over and the "clean city" ticket had been elected, all of the suits were dropped except that of Mr. Sheppard. His action was tried before Judge Ives. He contended that the comments of The Bulletin were an unjust and damaging reflection upon him. The Bulletin's defence was that the comments made related only to the administration of civic affairs, and were made in good faith and in the discharge of public duty; that they were not intended, and did not in fact, reflect upon Mr. Sheppard other than in his discharge of civic responsibility. Judge Ives sustained the position of The Bulletin and dismissed the action with costs. Mr. Sheppard appealed to the supreme court of Alberta, where judgment was given in his favor for $450 damages and costs. The effect of the decision of the supreme court of Alberta would have been to limit the responsibilities of public office by limiting the right of newspaper criticism. The Bulletin did not feel that it was warranted in accepting a decision having this effect as final. It has always held the view that the people who pay the taxes and who are the subjects of administrative control, are entitled to know through the press what is being done and who is doing it, and also to an expression of opinion as to whether or not it is being well done. The decision of the supreme court settles the point, so far as Canada is concerned, that there is a right of newspaper criticism of men holding public office for the results of their public acts.

There is no doubt that some, if not all, of the nine libel suits were entered for the purpose of preventing the criticism of the municipal authorities then being made by The Bulletin. The time was one of great financial stringency, especially for newspapers. The nine libel suits, most of them by men holding important public office, aggregating huge damages, directed against a newspaper then struggling for existence, might reasonably have been expected to have an important effect in minimizing its criticisms, if not in altogether stopping its publication. Had the effort been successful, and The Bulletin ceased its comments or its publication at that time and under those circumstances, there is very little doubt that the civic contest would have had a materially different result, and, as a consequence, conditions in Edmonton would not be as they are today.

The expense of meeting a libel suit, even a successful libel suit, is very great. The winning of the appeal before the Supreme Court is of importance to The Bulletin from a financial point of view, but it is much more important from the fact that the course taken by The Bulletin is justified by the highest authority in the Dominion. While The Bulletin desires to be understood as always standing for what it believes to be right, and as taking such a position as will not be misunderstood, it is not less anxious that its readers should be convinced that its action is never taken with any other desire than to work for the public good. It would be most distasteful to the management of The Bulletin if it were believed that at any time its columns could be used for the purpose of discrediting any reputable citizen as such.

So far as Mr. Rice Sheppard is concerned, The Bulletin has already said, and desires to say again, that it has not now and never had, any desire or intention of doing him any injury or injustice in his private life or in his capacity as a citizen of Edmonton. Its only difference with Mr. Sheppard was that it held him to strict accountability for the consequences resulting from acts of administration in civic government, in the responsibility for which it believed he shared. The Supreme Court of Canada has decided that The Bulletin was within its rights, or, in other words, was in the discharge of its public duty in taking the position it did.

SURELY.

Now that we have a Dominion food controller, surely the country could get along without that High Cost of Living Commission.

ONTARIO TOO?

Can it be that Ontario is also among the slacker provinces? It would almost seem so from the enthusiastic way the papers of that province demand that men be conscripted in the provinces that have supplied their quotas in order to make up the shortage in provinces that have not. It hardly seems likely that Ontario papers draw their enthusiasm from a desire that men be conscripted in Ontario to make up the shortage in Quebec.

ONE DROP.

Sir George Foster, Hon. T. W. Crothers and others who have been telling us that the increased cost of living was due entirely to the war, and therefore beyond Government control, may note that the price of eggs dropped ten cents per dozen in Toronto at the appointment of the food controller. And unless the food controller has been appointed to demonstrate the theory that nothing can be done, by doing nothing, there will be some other convincing drops before long.

POLITICS FIRST.

From the tone of a good many Canadian papers the important thing is not whether the public want men conscripted in Western Canada to make up a shortage from Eastern Canada, but whether the Government would gain a political advantage or lose one by "putting over" the arrangement without giving the public a chance to express their opinions. The fate of the Government, a stranger would suppose, is the really important thing in Canada. What happens to the public, or to the principles of democracy, is a minor matter.

FILL UP THE BIN.

The advice tendered by Mr. Pitcher at the Board of Trade luncheon should be taken to heart by every householder in Edmonton. The substance of the matter is that coal is available now, but there is no telling whether it will be available next winter in any relation to the demand. The safe course, and the one that will help to ease the situation next winter, is to get the bin filled during the summer. Coal may deteriorate somewhat from lying in the basement, but deteriorated coal is a long way ahead of no coal at all in cold weather.

MORE "WATCHFUL WAITING."

Six months ago the Director General of National Service told us that it was his special business, and that of the organization he was supposed to be bringing into life, to keep the coal mines and other "basic industries" of the country in operation. The mountain mines have been paralyzed by labor troubles, some of them for many months, to an extent which threatens the prairie country with a coal famine next winter. And where during this time has Mr. Bennett and his National Service system been hibernating?

SASKATCHEWAN.

The verdict from the Saskatchewan electors is not surprising, but it was hardly expected that they would render it in such an emphatic tone. For a Government which has held power for twelve years, and which recently underwent a change of leadership from the man who created it to a man comparatively new to provincial politics, the result is remarkable. The record of the Government entitled it to a continuance in office and would have likely secured this, but the overwhelming approval from the polls is a striking and significant tribute to Premier Martin's course in dealing with the parties mixed up in the bribery business a year or so ago. Saskatchewan evidently appreciates a premier who not only is honest, but who refuses to be dependent politically upon men who are not. Political decency is getting to be popular in Canada.

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore any question or of concern only to the questioner. To receive attention, every inquiry must bear some relation to the news of the day. This information is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Royal Commissions.

To the Bulletin: Have you any data from which you could give me some of what the cruiser Rainbow has done since the beginning of the war, in capturing or taking prizes, if any?

Could you also give us the number of Dominion commission bodies for investigating charges, and if they draw their salary all the time, whether sitting on cases, or not?

Also, could you give a case where any one was punished by any of those commissions?

J. McE, Bruce, Alta.

No. 1.—The publishing of the movements of the Rainbow and other naval vessels are prohibited by the censor but it is well known that she has done very effective service since the war began.

No. 2.—Some ninety royal commissions have been or are now busy in Canada, some on salary and some working without pay since the Borden government came into power.

No. 3.—There was a prosecution in one case at Regina for hay thefts but so far as we know there have not been any others. Two members of the Dominion house have resigned as a result of information brought out. A drug clerk at Ottawa was reprimanded.

Gopher Bounties.

To the Bulletin:—Would you tell me if there is a bounty on gophers in Alberta?

L.C.K., City.

There is no bounty.

Amateur Wireless.

To the Bulletin: Could you please tell me through your answer column whether it is permissible for boys to have an amateur wireless station not being able to send further than about two miles.

M. Mc, City.

No private wireless outfits have been allowed to operate in Canada since the war began.

Current Comment

Their Advantage

From the Calgary Albertan: The opposition in Saskatchewan has one advantage, and that is that only one Conservative newspaper is supporting it. Had there been no Conservative newspaper supporting the Alberta opposition, it might have had some chance. But with its two newspapers, each preaching strange and different gospels, there was no chance at all.

Do Not Harmonize

From the Calgary News-Telegram:—Conscription of men do not harmonize very well. Down in North Carolina—where there is said to be a thirst that reacheth low—many minors have been making affidavit that they were over 21 in order to get permits for the importation of liquor. And now these minors are being faced with the necessity of either registering for military service or being prosecuted for perjury. Here's a case where their sins have found them out.

Conscription of Wealth

From the Toronto Star:—Some time ago one of the opponents of conscription of wealth said that it was a mere excuse for resisting conscription of men. Conscription of men is no longer a vague proposal, but a measure embodied in a bill, definite and providing means of enforcement. It can no longer be said that a proposal for conscription of wealth will embarrass the government in its efforts to conscript men. On the contrary, such a measure will strengthen the hands of the government. If anyone objects to the phrase conscription of wealth he is welcome to use any other language he pleases. What is meant is that all the wealth, all the resources of the country, shall be as completely at the disposal of the government as the men of Canada. All may not be expropriated, but all must be controlled. Life is sacred. Property is not sacred. Profits are not sacred. The government places its hand on a man's shoulder, removes him from his employment and his home, and sends him to fight, it establishes a principle which destroys traditions about property and profits. It may not take everything, but nothing it needs can be denied. Food control is required. It may be necessary to restrict consumption as is done in statesmanship who possesses. It does not want the kind of restricted consumption that comes from speculation and exorbitant profits. If a citizen is ordered to stop waste and luxury in clothing must be assumed that his denial is for public purposes, not for private profit.

Ireland Is On Trial

From the London Daily Mail:—This puts Ireland very definitely on trial before the British Empire and the world. It will test most thoroughly whatever capacity for constructive work the Irish people possess. It demands from her the free play of the best Irish thought on the problem of Irish government. It lays before her the same opportunity that almost every autonomous Dominion under the British Crown has already enjoyed. It gives Ireland Home Rule for the purpose of proving on the evidence and by the judgment of the Irish themselves whether Home Rule is possible. The British efforts to solve the question have failed. That the Irish efforts may succeed is the earnest prayer of every patriotic Dominion under the British Crown. It is the first anxiety of all Irishmen.

The Whole Power of the Nation

From the Ottawa Citizen (Southern):—Sir Robert Borden is in the position of a general who is preparing an advance movement, in this case a political big push to consecrate the whole power of the nation to winning the war. He is pledged to support the men on active service. "To bring the whole force of the nation behind them." How does he seem to be planning to do it?

In the light of experience in the present war, what would happen to an infantry division if it started forward without artillery support? By attempting to push through with conscription of manpower alone, and merely tinkering with conscription of wealth, and forgetting altogether about national control of essential industries, Sir Robert Borden is exposing the forces he leads to a defeat and himself to failure in the most responsible political pledge he ever gave.

Genuine Food Controller

From the Toronto Telegram:—Four Wets Days in July, 1917, will greatly help Hon. W. Hanna to Control The Price of Food.

Ontario fields were never dressed in the beauty, strength and verdure of a more abundant growth. A day-light journey from Ottawa to Toronto over the C.N.R. does not sadden the eye with the sight of even one poor-looking field.

The growth is late. The danger of a backward season is a possibility that the critical stage in the growth of the crop will come in the extreme heat of the summer weather. An unseasonably hot and dry July is the only impediment to the fulfillment of Ontario's hopes of as bountiful a harvest as was ever reaped in this province.

With The Humorists

"Do animals show that they love us?" asked a teacher of her primary class.

"Yes, m'am," chorused the class.

"Good," said the teacher, and now tell me what animal has the greater natural fondness for man."

A small boy promptly spoke up: "Woman!"—Harper's Magazine.

Censor Was Busy.

At least one British censor has a sense of humor. When a soldier wrote home to his people that he had been buried alive for two hours in a demolished dugout he added: "I had the satisfaction of sending five of the Germans to hell." The censor drew a line through the sentence, but wrote underneath: "It is not permitted to refer to the whereabouts of the enemy."

His Wish.

A soldier footballer in the trenches was complaining that he had not had a change of underwear for many weeks, and consequently his hands were kept busy. He asked his pal, if it was true that the Kaiser had a wither arm. "Quite right, old sport," said the other, "I wish my hands were both arms withered," was the reply. "And had my shirt on."—Chicago Herald.

The Old Lady's Wish.

A Galway magistrate, who was a major in the county militia, sentenced an old woman to six weeks' imprisonment for shoplifting.

"Well, thanks be to the Lord," exclaimed the prisoner fervently, "I am, I am, there's a thing I'm thankful for; not wan of me kith or kin ever had anything to do with the milishy."—London Opinion.

Different.

Mary (writing a letter)—Which shall I say, "Mrs. Brown called last evening," or "Mrs. Brown called last night?"

Father (looking up from his paper)—Either expression will do; they mean the same thing.

Mary—If that is the case, why do we say "Good evening" when a visitor calls and "Good night" when he goes?

Father—From force of habit. I suppose. Evening and night are synonymous terms.

Mary—Well, they may be synonymous, but my name appears in society columns. I guess you would rather have the report say that I appeared clad in a tasteful evening gown instead of saying I was clad in a tasteful nightgown.—Chicago Journal.

ADDED TO CONTROL LIST.

Washington, June 25.—Copper, lead and their products, lumber and timber are additional articles to which government control would be extended during the war under amendment to the food control bill adopted today by a senate agricultural committee.

American Troops Get Great Reception From Waiting French Crowd

Enthusiasm Rose to Fever Pitch and Port Was Speedily Beflagged in Honor of Occasion—Additional Troops Are Expected Thursday. Great Number of Trucks Transporting Immense Supplies to Camp in Which Soldiers Are Concentrating.

A French Seaport, June 27.—The second contingent of American troops arrived and disembarked this morning.

The troops landed amid the frantic cheers of the people, who had gathered for hours before in anticipation of the duplicating of yesterday's surprise. Enthusiasm rose to fever pitch when it was learned that the transports and the convoys had successfully passed the submarine zone. The port was speedily beflagged in honor of the occasion.

All of the troops now arrived were transferred today to a camp not far distant from this point, where Major-General William L. Sibert is installed. Thence they probably will go soon to a point near the front. All the troops are in excellent shape, enthusiastic over the successful trip and their reception, and eager for action.

Major-General Pershing, the American commander, is expected tomorrow, when additional troops are expected.

The harbor is dotted with convoys. The streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and with blue-jackets. Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in which the troops are concentrating.

Soon in Battle Line.

The harbor is dotted with convoys. The streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and with blue-jackets. Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in which the troops are concentrating.

Washington, June 27.—The epochal landing of American troops in France cannot be fully discussed at this time for obvious reasons concerning the safety of other contingents.

It is entirely permissible to say they are part of the force which will be under command of Major-General J. J. Pershing and for whose arrival the general and his staff have been arranging ever since they landed on the other side.

Independent Command

The American troops will be an entirely independent command just as are the British troops, working of course, with the French at the head of operations as they are on French soil. When the troops have had their period of preparation beside the lines they will take place on the battle front to be arranged by General Pershing, in consultation with the other military chiefs there, and probably will very soon be carrying the Stars and Stripes in the assaults which steadily are driving the Germans out of France and Belgium.

All the troops under General Pershing's command are regulars and comprise the division which President Wilson directed to proceed to France "at the earliest possible time." Information of what other troops movements may be made is surrounded by secrecy to insure, so far as possible, a

Germans Were Waiting

It is not permissible to say what precautions took the American troop ships past the waiting German submarines, but there is no doubt that the precautions were carefully worked for it is generally believed that some time ago most of the German submarine fleet was withdrawn from its attacks on commercial ships to make it ready to ambush American troop ships in force. The successful landing, while a source of gratification to officials here, viewed from the point of being a military operation is regarded with added significance for its moral effect in Germany, if it is permitted to become known there.

The reference in the cable dispatches to a duplication of "yesterday's surprise" intimating that there was also a landing yesterday, passes without comment here, but obviously discloses a landing of a contingent not recorded in yesterday's despatches.

LETHBRIDGE MAJOR SUCCEUMBS WOUNDS

Lethbridge, Alta., June 27.—Major A. Stafford, commander of a battery raised here, and who was an officer of artillery at the front, has died of wounds received last Sunday, according to a message received this morning. He was one of the prominent timers of the city, and well known over Southern Alberta.

SUCCESS FOR ENTENTE.

Geneva, June 27.—The election of Gustav Ador to the Federal Council was celebrated in French Switzerland as no other event of the kind since the beginning of the war. It is regarded not only as a condemnation of the policy of Dr. Hoffmann, but as a success for the Entente Allies.

AMERICA

Hail, brothers-in-arms! Who now do pledge yourselves To the great cause for which we sweat and bleed.

The metal of your valor manifest, Your purity of motive, strength of deed.

Raise high the standard, sound the trumpet call To help us rid the world of dread "power-lust."

The words of evil, carried by assault, Shall crumble to the dust.

Then from the ashes of the old world's fires, Shall rise a new world purged by heroes' blood, Dealing in all things lovely, pure and good.

With visions new, new hopes and new desires.

Not vengeance, but stern justice is our cry: With that sure goal, nor heeding death's alarms, Right on our side, God holding up our arms.

The day is ours; fight on to victory! —E. M. S. New Westminster.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN U.S.

Washington, June 27.—The daylight saving bill amended to take effect next year, passed the senate today without discussion or record vote, and was sent to the house. Under the bill all time pieces would be turned forward one hour beginning the last Sunday in April, and continuing until the last Sunday in September.

U.S. WOODMEN IN ENGLAND.

London, June 27.—Ten units of American woodmen, sent over by New England States and organizations to turn various forests of the United Kingdom into lumber camps, have arrived on English soil.

In The Big Leagues

The Braves are worried. Hank Gowdy will very likely retire from the game on July 15 and start "doing his bit" for Hank as enlisted, and then What'll the poor Braves do, with only one catcher That one catcher is Traggesser, who isn't doing as well as he might.

The Cardinals and Browns have lost an old team mate through the death at St. Louis recently of "Wee Willie" Budhof.

One of the reasons for Connie Mack's success is that he tries new combinations until he finds one that works. He has been trying out a new man, Bradshaw, out on the second sack and if he makes good, the job is his. Meanwhile Mack's eye is always watching the pitching staff and this has shown great improvement lately.

What in the world has happened to Eddie Plank? Evidently age is telling on him, for his standing is lower than it ever has been since he entered the big leagues. Up to a short time ago he had turned in only one victory this season.

On the other hand, Ruth and Leonard are doing some star performing for the Red Sox. They have won more games for their team than all the other Boston pitchers together.

It begins to look as though the Washingtons and Cleveland had committed a blunder in letting Chick Gandil go. He's playing a great game at first base for the White Sox, who are mighty glad to have him in their midst.

At that, it's just possible that Jess Willard bought that circus some time ago to stage the fight between himself and Clumsy Carl.

The White Sox have a good teacher in Kid Gleason, their coach. Gleason once pitched for the famous Baltimore Orioles and later played second base for the Giants. He broke into the National league as a pitcher for the Phillies in 1890. Besides this, the champion Orioles of 1894 are represented in the major leagues today by McGraw, Jennings and Robinson, all managers, by Joe Kelly, the Yankee scout, while others are in the minor leagues.

Many of the great men now making history in the world are enthusiastic devotees of boxing. They do not necessarily wear the gloves themselves, but they certainly enjoy a bout. When King George V. of England was the "sailor prince," with no thought of succeeding to the throne, he refereed many a boxing match in the navy, of which he was such a popular member. He even hung up small purses for the member of the crew who came out the victor in the matches. The Prince of Wales is also fond of the sport and on one occasion attended a show at the National Sporting Club. Theodore Roosevelt, of course, is considerable boxing fan and can handle his fists mighty well. Mike Donovan, the former middle-weight champion, used to be Teddy's instructor at the White House when the former was president. Senator La Follette, man of peace though he is, knows how to box very well. He took it up several years ago to reduce weight. So the name "Fighting Bob" may not have been bestowed upon him for nothing.

G. W. G. ARE NOW LEADING INTERMEDIATES

Defeated Tigers Last Night By Score Of Five To Three.

In a fast game at Diamond Park in the Intermediate League last night the Great West Garment Co. team defeated the Tigers by a score of 5 to 3. This puts the G. W. G. at the head of the league. The batteries were: Great West Garment Co.; Norman and Bralmer; Tigers, Vance and Claire. Edalies will play the Capitals tonight.

PLAYERS MOVING

The Philadelphia Nationals have released Claude Cooper, outfielder, to the Louisville American Association team, and Sheraton McGaffigan, to the Richmond team of the International League. Harry Holland and Carl Cashion, who were released recently by the Minneapolis team to Wichita, will join the Western League team. It is stated, but will play with a semi-professional team in Virginia, Minn.

SOME BOUTS

CHICAGO, June 27.—Frankie Callahan of New York was awarded a referee's decision over Chick Simlar of Erie, Pa., in twelve rounds at Boston. Jimmy Hanlon, of Denver, out-fought Harry Donahue, Peoria lightweight, in a twelve-round bout at New York. Charlie Walner of Newark, N. J., was disqualified for fouling in the second round of a ten-round bout with Fred Fulton of Minnesota at Buffalo.

Four Straights

CLEVELAND, June 26.—Cleveland made it four straight from St. Louis today, winning five to four. Gould, who started to pitch, passed the first three batters. Kieffer, who relieved him, held the Browns in check until the ninth, when Bagby went in and struck out Jacobson, retiring the side.

Won in Eleventh

BOSTON, June 27.—Washington scored three runs to tie the score in the ninth inning today and defeated the world's champions 7 to 6 by a run in the eleventh. A wild throw to first base by Shore was responsible for two of the runs in the ninth. Ayers' single sent the winning tally home.

P.S. Have you smoked a Nobleman Cigar lately?

Are You Using the Razor Chosen by the Allied Armies?

ONLY proven efficiency survives in this war. Men, weapons and equipment must make good beyond question—or go to the scrap heap. A year's active service is a sterner test than a decade of peace!

Beyond all question the Gillette has proved itself the Razor of the Great War—in all the Allied Armies, on all the Fronts. Gillette Razors and Blades have gone Overseas in a steady stream from Canada and the United States—by thousands, by hundreds of thousands and by millions!

Compact enough for the lightest kit—always keen—always ready for instant action—the Gillette has served with the fighting men everywhere. On the firing lines its clean, smooth, refreshing shave is relished as a bit of home comfort in the wilderness.

To you—the man in Canada—the Gillette Safety Razor offers just the same advantages that have won such favor Overseas. There is not a man living with a beard to shave who cannot shave better with a Gillette—if he will use it correctly, with a light grip and the sliding, angle stroke. If there is a man who is not enthusiastic over the Gillette, it is probably because he has not caught this simple knack of using it.

If you already have a Gillette Safety Razor yourself, you'll appreciate how much some lad you know Overseas would enjoy one as a gift from you.

Standard Sets, "Bulldogs" and "Aristocrats" cost $5.00—Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets $6.50 up.

At Drug, Jewelry and Hardware Stores.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

By Howard R. Goss

Uncle Wiggily and the Croquet Ball

Copyright, 1917, by McClure News-Paper Syndicate.

"Why in the world are you taking those bottles with you?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as she saw Uncle Wiggily, the bunny rabbit gentleman, hopping off the front porch of his hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"These are the prizes Alice from Wonderland gave me," answered Mr. Longears, as he looked at the blue and red corked bottles. The red one makes things grow larger and the blue one makes them smaller. I am going to take them with me as I go looking for an adventure today, as there is no telling when I might need them. I did yesterday, when the alligator caught me. I gave him a drink from the blue bottle and he shrank until he was no larger than a baby anteater worm."

The rabbit gentleman had not gone very far, thinking his pink nose as he hopped, before, all of a sudden, he came to a place where a big stone grew out of the ground, and near it he heard a voice saying:

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear! Oh, dear!"

"Ha! That sounds like trouble!" exclaimed the bunny. "Who are you and what is the matter?" he asked, kindly.

"Oh, I am a Lady Bug," was the answer, "and I am so small that I either get lost all the while, or all the other animals and bugs in the forest step on me. Oh, I wish I were larger so I could be more easily seen!"

"You are rather hard to see," said Uncle Wiggily, and he had to look twice through his glasses before he could notice the tiny bug. At the first look he only saw her, but the second time he saw her fully.

"I'd like to be about as large as a June Beetle," said the Lady Bug. "But I don't expect I ever shall be."

"Oh, yes you will!" cried Jolly Uncle Wiggily.

"I will! How?" asked the Lady Bug, eagerly.

"I'll have her some water in a magic bottle," said the bunny. "I'll give you a few drops of it, and it will make you grow larger." So he took some water from the red-corked flask, and let the Lady Bug sip. Instantly she grew as large as a turkey.

"Oh, now I'm too big," she said.

"I see you are," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'll have to give you some from the other bottle, and then you'll grow smaller." So he did, but he must have given a little too much, for the Lady Bug suddenly grew as small as the point of a baby pin.

"Oh, this is worse and worse," she said sadly.

"I know it!" agreed Uncle Wiggily. "Wait, I'll give you a little of both kinds," and he did, so the Lady Bug grew to the size of a small potato, which was just right, so she would not get lost or stepped on.

After the Lady Bug had thanked him, Uncle Wiggily, with his two magical bottles, hopped on through the woods. He had not gone very far before he saw Alice of Wonderland and the Queen of Hearts playing croquet on a grassy place.

"Come on, Uncle Wiggily!" called Alice. "You're just in time for the game."

"Fine!" said the bunny uncle, taking a mallet and round wooden ball which the Queen handed him.

"Three strikes and you're out!" warned the Queen.

"What does she mean?" asked Uncle Wiggily of Alice. "This isn't baseball."

"She means," explained the little flaxen-haired girl, "that if you miss striking the croquet ball three times with your mallet you have to go out and bring in some ice cream."

"Oh, I shan't mind that," the bunny rabbit said. "In fact, I shall rather like it. Now, what do I do—?"

"Play ball!" suddenly cried the Queen of Hearts, and she struck with her mallet a croquet ball near her such a hard blow that it sailed through the air and hit Uncle Wiggily in the coat tails. And then something cracked.

All at once the croquet ball began growing larger! Bigger and bigger it grew, like a snowball which you roll in the yard, and then it began to roll after Uncle Wiggily. Down the croquet ground the big wooden ball chased after him, rolling closer and closer.

"Oh my!" cried the Queen of Hearts. "What have I done?"

"The ball cracked the magical red ink pocket!" cried Uncle Wiggily over his shoulder, as he ran. "Some of the magic big-growing water spilled on the ball, and now it has turned into a giant! Oh, it will crush me!"

And, really, it did seem as though the big croquet ball would, for now it was as large as a house and still growing, so strong was the water in the magical bottle that had been broken. Larger and larger grew the croquet ball, and faster and faster it rolled after Uncle Wiggily. It was almost on his heels now, and the bunny gentleman was running so fast that his tail silk flew off.

"Oh, what shall I do?" he cried. "Alice thought for a minute, then she called:

"Quick, Uncle Wiggily. 'Take out the blue-corked bottle and sprinkle the water on the croquet ball! Hurry now!'"

Uncle Wiggily did. As he ran he turned and threw back over his shoulder some of the blue bottled water on the croquet ball. And, all at once, just as the alligator had done, the croquet ball shrank and shrank until it was no larger than a boy's marble, and then it could hurt Uncle Wiggily even if it did roll on him.

But it is a good thing he had that bottle of shrinking water with him. And, if the expressman doesn't take the baby carriage to ride the trunk down to the five-and-ten-cent store to buy a new piano, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the Do-Do.

Letters to Uncle Tom

Reads Words of Song
Dear Uncle Tom—This is my second letter to your interesting club. I received the badge a few weeks ago. I am very proud of it. I note that one of the members of the club asks for the song known as "Silver Threads Among the Gold." I would like to return, be much pleased if some member of the club could kindly furnish the words of the song entitled "Some Day When Dreams Come True."

CHRISTINA OLIVER.
Gramina, July 2.

SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD
Darling, I am growing old; Silver threads among the gold, Shine upon my brow today. I am feeling fast away. But, my darling, you will be Always young and fair to me. But my darling, you will be Always young and fair to me.

CHORUS:
I'm growing old, Silver threads among the gold, Shine upon my brow today. Life is fading fast away.

Love is always young and fair; What to us is silver hair, Faded cheeks and steps grown slow, To the heart that loves me know? Since I kissed you, mine alone, You have never older grown. Since I kissed you, mine alone, You have never older grown.

Love can never more grow old; Cheeks may lose their brown and gold; Locks may fade and hollow grow, True love's the heart that never grows old. Yes, my darling, mine alone, You have never older grown. Yes, my darling, mine alone, You have never older grown.

Having Picnic
Dear Uncle Tom—This is my first letter to your interesting club, and I hope to see you in print. If the weather is nice I hope to go to the picnic on Wednesday, the 27th of June. We hope to have a good time. We also want to play a game of baseball.

HAITY KERN.
Leduc, June 26, 1917.

Forty-two Pigs
Dear Uncle Tom—I received your badge and was very glad to get it. I think it is very nice. We have fourteen little pigs and 28 little chickens. I take care of the chickens. I have a sister going to high school. She is 12 years old and in Grade IX.

MARJORIE WALKER.
Tees, June 23.

Enjoys the Summer
Dear Uncle Tom—Well, here I am again. This is my third letter to your interesting club. I am feeling fine, hope the other members are too. We are having quite a lot of fun now, so there is no need of anything drying up. I go to school every day. I like it fine. There are 26 scholars in school. We got a new teacher now; her name is Miss Sacey. I think that she is a dandy teacher. We got a flower garden at school. The flowers are coming up nicely. I enjoy the summer with my new green grass and trees and all the pretty flowers. My favorite flowers are the roses.

ALMA HUELTER.
Riley, June 25.

Fifty Little Chickens
Dear Uncle Tom—This is my fourth letter to your interesting club. I am feeling fine, hope the other members are too. We are having quite a lot of fun now, so there is no need of anything drying up. I go to school every day. I like it fine. There are 26 scholars in school. We got a new teacher now; her name is Miss Sacey. I think that she is a dandy teacher. We got a flower garden at school. The flowers are coming up nicely. I enjoy the summer with my new green grass and trees and all the pretty flowers. My favorite flowers are the roses.

MARY SWANSON.
Durlingville, June 22.

Had Two Gardens
Dear Uncle Tom—I am going to school every day. Our school lasts until the end of this month. I have got two flower gardens, but there are only a few plants up. The other kids killed the other garden. Holden, June 23rd.

MABEL PETERSON.

Famous Women
Celia Thaxter
This is the birthday of Celia Thaxter, the American poetess, whose works have gladdened the hearts of children, young and old. She was born at Portsmouth, N. H., on June 29, 1836. She was the daughter of Thomas B. Leighton, an old resident of the Isle of Shoals, where, at Appleton, Celia spent the most of her life. In 1861 she married Levi Lincoln Thaxter of Waterville, Mass. Her best known work is "Among the Isles of Shoals," "Driftwood," "Poems for Children," "The Cruise of the Mystery," "An Island Garden." Celia Thaxter died at the Isle of Shoals August 26, 1894.

GERMAN SHIPPING AT ROTTERDAM
London, June 27.—A dispatch to the Times from Rotterdam says that German shipping there is steadily increasing. Twenty-two German ships from Hamburg and Baltic ports entered last week. Two German ships were torpedoed or mined by the British, but traffic was unaffected.

HYNDMAN SOCIALISTS' VIEWS.
London, June 27.—The section of British Socialists led by Henry Hyndman has declined the invitation of Russian Workmen and Soldiers' delegates to attend the International Socialist conference at Stockholm. The refusal is based on the fact that the conference will be attended by German and Austrian Socialists, and that it cannot serve the cause of peace or Socialism as long as Germans remain in possession of territory they seized and devastated.

Little Stories of Big Men

Dr. Alexis Carrel, Wizard of Surgery

When the world pictures to itself a famous surgeon it conjures up a man, ripe in years, rich in hair, adorned about the face, and looking over his shoulder in a very grave and wise manner. If, therefore, you were suddenly confronted with the person of Alexis Carrel, you would take him to be one of the leading surgeons that the age has produced. He has neither a beard, nor does he look as though the world's wisdom were weighing heavily upon him. True, he wears a pince-nez. For the rest he looks like a bright, alert, up-to-the-minute business man. And bright and alert he is, very, very bright. From the standpoint of medical achievement Dr. Alexis Carrel is very young in years. He is today celebrating his 44th birthday, and, as he has his fighting for the advancement of science, he is today fighting for the maintenance of liberty throughout the world, for Dr. Carrel is the front man of the world where he was born. He has been working in the hospitals day and night since the commencement of the war and giving his native land the benefit of his achievement in surgery. Dr. Carrel's rise in his profession was truly meteoric. He was born at Sainte Foy des Lyons, France, June 28, 1873. He studied at the University of Lyons and in 1896 was an interne in the principal hospital of that city. Later he joined the medical faculty of the University of Lyons. He came to America, going to Montreal, where he entered upon laboratory work at McGill University. From there he went to the University of Chicago and in 1904 joined the staff of the Rockefeller Institute, confining himself entirely to experiments and studies in the laboratory. In 1912 Dr. Carrel won the Nobel prize for medicine for his success in suturing blood vessels and transplanting human organs.

Today We Celebrate

A through passenger service on the Canadian Pacific Railway between Montreal and Vancouver was inaugurated thirty-one years ago today, June 28, 1886. This line, first of the great continental systems that now cover Canada with a network of steel rails, built in four and a half years. Enormous engineering difficulties had to be overcome in constructing the road through the rocky barriers of the Rockies. The railway was built in a few years, and the Canadian Pacific scheme, born in 1881, at Burlington, N. J., was the first general election of the Quakers in America was held on June 28, 1881, at Burlington, N. J. On the same day the shores of Lake Champlain arrived at St. Johns from Burlington, Vt. Commodore Desmar, one of the greatest of the American navy, arrived with his squadron off the coast of Algiers on June 28, 1815. On this day in 1836 James Madison, the fourth president of the United States, died at the age of 85. On the very same day the coronation of Queen Victoria took place in London. The National Deaf-Mute College was opened at Washington on June 28, 1864. This is the only college in the world for those who have been so afflicted.

Today's Anniversaries

Anniversary of the Coffee Industry.
The first coffee shipment from Brazil was made 150 years ago today and consisted of a consignment of ten bags sent to Europe. Brazil now produces over 85 per cent of the world's coffee supply, and a large part of it is grown in the state of Sao Paulo. Coffee was introduced into Brazil in 1714 by Father Veloso, a Franciscan monk, and nine years later began the export of the bean that has today Brazil's principal source of wealth. Over half of all the coffee grown is consumed in the United States, and Uncle Sam is the largest buyer. The wholesale price is about $80,000,000. The Danes are next to the Americans as the greatest coffee drinkers, while the Germans came third before the war. The coffee industry is drinking today is made of acorns, a bitter brew, indeed.

WAR SAVING CERTIFICATES.
Ottawa, June 27.—The sale of war saving certificates has brought approximately eight million dollars into the Dominion treasury up to the present time. In all 138,000 certificates have been sold through the agency of the banks and the post offices.

Could Not Lift Stick of Wood
Benton, N. B., May 17.—A great many people suffer the results of deranged kidneys and do not understand the cause of trouble or the way to obtain cure. The writer of the letter suffered excruciating pains in the back and in vain his physician tried to cure him. For some reason or other his medicines did not have the desired effect.

Mr. Otis' brother was a merchant selling among other medicines, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and he heard his customers telling about how they were cured of kidney derangements by their use. This led to Mr. Otis putting them to the test, with the splendid results reported in this letter.

Mr. E. C. Otis, Benton, Carleton County, N. B., writes: "I am glad to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered from my kidneys, which at one time were so bad I could not lift a stick of wood without getting on my knees, and then would almost faint from the pain in my back. I consulted a doctor about it, and he gave me some medicine, but it did not help me. My brother, who is a merchant, and carries all your medicines, advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I got one box, and they helped me, so I got another one and kept on until I had taken five boxes, which cured me. I have had no trouble with my back since, and am never without Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house. Last summer I also suffered from piles. I used three boxes of your Ointment, and it cured them. I can certainly recommend Dr. Chase's Pills and Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 35c a box, 5 for $1.00, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
